

Public

Our community faces the constant threat of flooding, causing significant damage to homes, infrastructure, and posing a risk to lives.

Current monitoring systems lack the ability to provide timely and accurate warnings, leaving us vulnerable to the devastating impact of floods.

This system must be reliable, accessible, and capable of integrating with existing emergency response mechanisms to ensure a swift and coordinated response to mitigate